

4. We Help One Another

WARM UP

Who does the following work in your family?

1. Fill your water bottle
2. Buying vegetables
3. Watering plants
4. Dusting
5. Serve water to a guest
6. Play with you
7. Tells interesting stories

An ideal family is one in which all the members help one another. All the members of a family play different roles.

Papa! May I help you carry this box?

Thank you Saurabh!

HELPING ONE ANOTHER

Members of a family help one another.

Father works in an office. He earns money for the family. He buys things from the market and brings home. He sometimes helps mother in the kitchen also.

Mother cooks food and keeps the house clean. She takes care of our needs. Some mothers also work either in offices or in other jobs.

PARENTS LOOK AFTER THE NEED OF THE FAMILY.

Parents helps children in their studies.

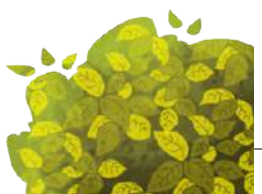

They play with children.

They read stories for children.

They also take care of grandparents.

CHILDREN HELP THE FAMILY IN MANY WAYS.

Children help to keep the house clean.

They help the mother in the Kitchen.

They also help to carry things.

They water the plants.

FUN WITH FAMILY

Every family has fun together in different ways.

We watch movies.

We go to picnics.

We celebrate festivals.

We celebrate special days.

NEW WORDS

ideal: something that is perfect or the best.

role: the job or function of a person.

needs: things that are necessary or required.

CHAPTER DRILL

A. Tick (✓) the correct option.

1. Who earns money for the family?

(a) Father

☐

(b) Brother

☐

(c) Friend

☐

2. Who keeps the house clean?

(a) Friend

☐

(b) Mother

☐

(c) Neighbour

☐

3. How do children help in the family?

(a) They water the plants

☐

(b) They buy groceries

☐

(c) They drive the car

☐

B. Fill in the blanks with the help of the clue box.

help mother market children

1. _____ takes care of our needs.
2. _____ water the plants.
3. Father buys things from the _____.
4. An ideal family is one in which all the members _____ one another.

C. Answer the following questions.

1. Do you help your parents at home?

2. Who cooks the food in your home?

3. Who earns money for the family?

4. Who play with the children?

5. Who takes you to school in the morning?

OVERALL DEVELOPMENT

Holistic Development NCF

Write three things you do on your birthday.

Values and Ethics NCF

Everyone in a family is important. We should always help and be kind to each other.

Language Proficiency

What are three things you do to help at home? It can be anything like picking up your toys or watering the plants.

ACTIVITY CORNER

Experiential Learning

Know your family better. Complete the information about it. Write the dates of the following special days.

Birthdays

- | | |
|----------------------|----------------------|
| 1. Grandfather _____ | 2. Grandmother _____ |
| 3. Father _____ | 4. Mother _____ |

Wedding Anniversaries

- | | |
|-----------------------|------------------|
| 1. Grandparents _____ | 2. Parents _____ |
|-----------------------|------------------|

Teacher's Note

Encourage students to share their experiences of helping in their families. Highlight the importance of respect, cooperation, and appreciation for each other's roles within the family.

